Rationale

If you have the vision, passion and commitment about enhancing the Kingdom of God, KHTS' online degree is your right move. The program is designed to respond to the growing need of advanced biblical-theological ministerial and leadership skills across the globe.

Through our online courses, you will learn the discipline of biblical- visionary leadership, in-depth and down to earth biblical theological principles and skills for Christian ministry in a global context.

The program is intended for leaders, pastors, ministers who finished their bachelor degrees and feel the need to pursue their higher theological education for a global context.

By pursuing our ministry degree, you can gain vision, strategy, values and education to faces challenges of Christian ministries in a local and as well as global alike.

Utilizing the power of the context, the program will provide in-depth, down-to-earth biblical-theological education for pastors, leaders who are already serving in churches and mission fields to strengthen, enhance their abilities to serve in more anchored but creative ways. This MA degree in ministry is geared towards working as leaders in the church, in conventions and associations, in pastoral care and in mission fields. Thus, this degree in ministry will provide tools necessary to guide individuals on a holistic ministry view with global perspective.
